March 11
10:00 Ariving with coffee and snacks
11:00 Kick-Off & Welcome
Jenni Al-Sweid, Melatino B. C. Hiihka
11:30 Entanglement through disentanglement
Melatino B. C. Hiihka
11:30 Get together with our Awareness Team
Joséphine "Joy" Beng Jantzen Chov
Awareness means paying attention to other and creating a space together in which different people with different experiences can have conversations. For this reason, we see ourselves as a certain issue in order to recognize local and global issues as well as the other's power structure.
Arts Midwest is here to support our community and to create a place where people of all ages can listen and redoubled commitments and resources.
12:00 Lunch Break
12:00 Workshops
14:00 Coffee Break
14:30 Open Stage
14:30 Workshop
16:00 Official end; get-together in the club afterwards with music
17:00 Coffee Break
17:00 Open Stage
Presented by: Jenni Al-Sweid [No ID]
This workshop is free to participate in one Open Stage with Asapra, a 6 minute long artists or discussion create and perform your own works or listen to others topics close to you hear. It is a poe, a video, a game or a presentation of your work, your projects, your artist’s fields of activity. We will do a project: laptop, internet, mics and sound. If you already have these, please contact us. We are also happy about your spontaneous participation. Cycles and transitions, climate change, social and technical needs please contact: Jenni Al-Sweid: jenni@minotsi.org
19:00 Official sealing & get-together in the club afterwards with music

Minotsi
10:00 Ariving with coffee and snacks
11:00 Kick-Off & Welcome
Jenni Al-Sweid, Melatino B. C. Hiihka
11:30 Entanglement through disentanglement
Melatino B. C. Hiihka
11:30 Get together with our Awareness Team
Joséphine "Joy" Beng Jantzen Chov
Awareness means paying attention to other and creating a space together in which different people with different experiences can have conversations. For this reason, we see ourselves as a certain issue in order to recognize local and global issues as well as the other’s power structure. Arts Midwest is here to support our community and to create a place where people of all ages can listen and redoubled commitments and resources.
12:00 Lunch Break
12:00 Workshops
14:00 Coffee Break
14:30 Open Stage
14:30 Workshop
16:00 Official end; get-together in the club afterwards with music
17:00 Coffee Break
17:00 Open Stage
Presented by: Jenni Al-Sweid [No ID]
This workshop is free to participate in one Open Stage with Asapra, a 6 minute long artists or discussion create and perform your own works or listen to others topics close to you hear. It is a poe, a video, a game or a presentation of your work, your projects, your artist’s fields of activity. We will do a project: laptop, internet, mics and sound. If you already have these, please contact us. We are also happy about your spontaneous participation. Cycles and transitions, climate change, social and technical needs please contact: Jenni Al-Sweid: jenni@minotsi.org
19:00 Official sealing & get-together in the club afterwards with music

Minotsi
10:00 Ariving with coffee and snacks
11:00 Kick-Off & Welcome
Jenni Al-Sweid, Melatino B. C. Hiihka
11:30 Entanglement through disentanglement
Melatino B. C. Hiihka
11:30 Get together with our Awareness Team
Joséphine "Joy" Beng Jantzen Chov
Awareness means paying attention to other and creating a space together in which different people with different experiences can have conversations. For this reason, we see ourselves as a certain issue in order to recognize local and global issues as well as the other’s power structure. Arts Midwest is here to support our community and to create a place where people of all ages can listen and redoubled commitments and resources.
12:00 Lunch Break
12:00 Workshops
14:00 Coffee Break
14:30 Open Stage
14:30 Workshop
16:00 Official end; get-together in the club afterwards with music
17:00 Coffee Break
17:00 Open Stage
Presented by: Jenni Al-Sweid [No ID]
This workshop is free to participate in one Open Stage with Asapra, a 6 minute long artists or discussion create and perform your own works or listen to others topics close to you hear. It is a poe, a video, a game or a presentation of your work, your projects, your artist’s fields of activity. We will do a project: laptop, internet, mics and sound. If you already have these, please contact us. We are also happy about your spontaneous participation. Cycles and transitions, climate change, social and technical needs please contact: Jenni Al-Sweid: jenni@minotsi.org
19:00 Official sealing & get-together in the club afterwards with music

Minotsi
10:00 Ariving with coffee and snacks
11:00 Kick-Off & Welcome
Jenni Al-Sweid, Melatino B. C. Hiihka
11:30 Entanglement through disentanglement
Melatino B. C. Hiihka
11:30 Get together with our Awareness Team
Joséphine "Joy" Beng Jantzen Chov
Awareness means paying attention to other and creating a space together in which different people with different experiences can have conversations. For this reason, we see ourselves as a certain issue in order to recognize local and global issues as well as the other’s power structure. Arts Midwest is here to support our community and to create a place where people of all ages can listen and redoubled commitments and resources.
12:00 Lunch Break
12:00 Workshops
14:00 Coffee Break
14:30 Open Stage
14:30 Workshop
16:00 Official end; get-together in the club afterwards with music
17:00 Coffee Break
17:00 Open Stage
Presented by: Jenni Al-Sweid [No ID]
This workshop is free to participate in one Open Stage with Asapra, a 6 minute long artists or discussion create and perform your own works or listen to others topics close to you hear. It is a poe, a video, a game or a presentation of your work, your projects, your artist’s fields of activity. We will do a project: laptop, internet, mics and sound. If you already have these, please contact us. We are also happy about your spontaneous participation. Cycles and transitions, climate change, social and technical needs please contact: Jenni Al-Sweid: jenni@minotsi.org
19:00 Official sealing & get-together in the club afterwards with music

Minotsi